Dear [redacted]

This is to acknowledge your recent letter regarding the possible entry into this country of [redacted]

I regret to say that it will be impossible to utilize Section 8 of Public Law 110 to effect the entry of [redacted] into the United States. Section 8 of Public Law 110 is an emergency procedure providing for the entry of an alien who is essential to the furtherance of the national intelligence mission and whose intelligence potential has proven of the highest value to the national security. This Section is never used where alternatives are present under normal immigration procedures.

I greatly regret that I am unable to be of any assistance to you in this connection but, unfortunately, [redacted] does not come within the categories contemplated in the utilization of Section 8.

Sincerely,

Signed

R. H. HILLENKOTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
